

MOVIE SCREENING & Community Discussion

For Responsible Development in our Shore Communities

Can Small Town America Survive? What is Responsible Development?

See the movie "Two Square Miles" www.twosquaremiles.com a film about Hudson, New York's struggle to define and defend itself in the face of irresponsible development at the newly renovated Baronet Theater.

Join us as we begin a balanced discussion of what constitutes responsible development in Asbury Park, Long Branch, Neptune and Ocean Grove.

Learn more about the issues of responsible development including housing density, preservation, eminent domain, the environment, the need for re-development, and representation for ALL residents in the decision-making process.

When: Sunday, October 22nd, 2006 at 2pm

Special Q & A with the filmmakers and special guests to immediately follow the screening

Where: Baronet Theater, 205 4th Avenue, Asbury Park, NJ

732-807-3317 ~ www.asburybaronet.com

FREE EVENT ~ Open to the public

Special Guests: Barbara Ettinger, Director of "Two Square Miles"; William J. Ward, Esq. of Carlin and Ward and the NJ Eminent Domain Blog; Barbara and Patricia Lesinski of Citizens for Wesley Lake; Jamie Nieradka of Ocean Grove and No More Than 24; Councilman Jim Keady, Asbury Park (tent.)
Additional speakers to be announced.

For more information contact : developmentrally@yahoo.com